WINS SEA GULL STAKES AT ODDS OF 12 TO 1.

Handleap Easy for Keynote-Britisher Accepts Weight From Glorifler and Beats Him a Nose-Meadow Horn a Surprise-Good and Plenty's Steeplechase.

Three favorites won over Brighton's muddy Three favorites won over Brighton's muddy track yesterday. It sprinkled nearly all the afternoon, but the usual Monday crowd of 10,000 enthusiasts turned out. Lady Araelia was withdrawn from the Sea Gull stakes for three-year-old fillies, six furiongs, and John A. Drake's Ishlana and T. L. Watts's Marmee were added starters. There was such a heavy play on Flammula that she was hammered down from 6 to 5 to 7 to 10.
Possession, with Hildebrand up, was also backed as if it was all over, at 16 to 5. Ishlana cut out the pace, Possession being badly pinched off just after the start. Graceful, a 12 to 1 shot, who was perfectly at home in the going, overhauled Ishlana at the turn, with Flammula and Marmee, 10 to 1, following neck and neck. Graceful drew away at the head of the stretch and just galloped home victorious by three lengths in 1:15. It was a hot finish for the rest of the money, Marmee being second a head before Posses-sion, who beat Ishlana half a length with Flammula a head back.

Keynote, ridden by Hildebrand, closed the choice at 11 to 10 in the handicap at a mile and a furlong, Bill Daly's pair, Himself mile and a luriong, Bill Daly's pair, himself and Illyria, going back from even money to 8 to 5. April Shower, the only other starter, was backed down from eights to fours. April Shower and Keynote had the race to themselves, the former showing the way to the middle of the backstretch, where the favorite took command and won easily by a length and a half in 1:55. April Shower was twenty lengths before Himself, with Illyria four lengths away. The running of the Daly horses excited much unfavorable comment, as they had no speed. The stewards promptly interviewed their trainer. Carter, after the race, but there was noth

The best finish of the day was in the third 18.0e. for two-year-olds at six furlongs, when John A. Drake's Britisher, 6 to 5, beat L. V. John a. Drake's Britisher, a to a, Beat S. At the head of the stretch it looked as if ellorifler might win, but his burden told on him and Britisher got up under the whip. Eight lengths back Torchello, 8 to 1, took third money from Jack McKeon by two lengths. The steeplechase, at about two miles, was a sensational affair in that the two choices. tiood and Plenty, 11 to 10, and Malden, 2 to 1, went off for a smashing race by themselves right up to the last jump, where Malden Then Good and Plenty won by thirty lengths. Mystic Shriner, 5 to 1, was second, 100 lengths better than Trek, 50 to 1. Doylesford also fell. The time was 4:30 3-5. Frank Farrell's Champlain, 7 to 1, won the first race, at a mile and a sixteenth, rather easily by two and a half lengths. Apprentice riders had the mounts and the winner was handled in masterly fashion by little J. J. Walsh. G. Whittier, backed down to 4 to 1 led for nearly three-quarters of a mile, where Wals 1 took Champlain to the front, never to to i f. am 7 to 5, ran second, beating Nine Spot, 12 to 1, by eight lengths. The latter beat Bardolf, 7 to 2 favorite, by a head. The time was 1:49 3-5. Meadow Horn, 15 to 1, made all the running in the last race, for maiden two-year-old filities and geldings, and won galloping by four lengths in 1:10. Gotowin, 7 to 1, took the place from Sportsman, 15 to 1, by a length and a half. Bill Daly's Salt and Pepper, pounded down to 9 to 5 favorite, ran a bad race and came in blinded with mud. GRACEFUL REVELS IN THE MUD TO-DAY'S CARD FOR BRIGHTON. GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK. Seashore Handleap, One Mile and a Quar ter, the Feature.

The Seashore Handicap, at a mile and a quarter, is the feature of Brighton's good card to-day. Hurst Park takes up top weight, 126 pounds. Major Daingerfield, who likes the run, has 121. Rosetint is in with only 106 pounds and may be fancied because of the form she displayed in her race with Grand Opera on Saturday. Reliable is named to go in the first race, at six furlongs. with 140 pounds. Et Tu Brute, Ben Crockett Collector Jessup and Honiton are the best of the others. Suzanne Rocamora, Consuclo II., Voladay and Gold Fleur seem to figure well in the second event, for two-yearolds. Ir the third race, at a mile and a sixteenth, Trepan, Monster, Nine Spot and Unmasked may be played. Prince Salm Salm, Black Socks, Bound Brook and Belle of Portland are worth thinking about in the maiden race at a inile and a sixteenth. HONORS FOR SCHOLES.

Great Demonstration in Toronto Over

Winner of Diamond Sculis. TORONTO, Ontario, July 25 .- Lou Scholes the world's amateur champion oarsman, was accorded a great public reception on his return home this evening. Thirty thousand persons lined the streets to see the procession headed, and the enthusiasm somewhat re sembled Pretoria night here in celebrating the end of the Boer war. Bands of music, the Mayor and City Council, all the rowing and athletic associations, turned out to welcome the winner of the diamond sculls

The crowd went to the Queen's Park, where congratulatory addresses were made. In the procession, on a fire ladder, was the boat in which Scholes won the diamond sculls and on a large dray was the shell "in which he learned to row," a somewhat antique looking rowing machine. One carriage was devoted to the golden cup he brought home. In the park a costly silver plate was presented to Scholes on behalf of the city, and the Toronto Baseball Club presented to him a $300 diamond medal consisting of a large star bearing a wreath of laurels and sculls, the figures "1904" and an enamelled scroll, inscribed "World's Amateur Champion." In the outline of the star and the sculls are set forty-four diamonds, and the date is set with forty-three pigeon blood rubies. The base is of 18 carat gold. The crowd went to the Queen's Park, where

FATHER BILL DALY MUST EX-PLAIN TO THE STEWARDS.

Running of His Horse Himself Causes an Investigation-Drake Bets $20,000 on Britisher and is Lucky-Another Narrow Escape in the Steeplechase.

The stewards of the Brighton meeting, after a consultation at the conclusion of the races yesterday, notified "Father Bill" Daly to appear before them to-day and explain the running of Himself in the handicap Himself has always been a noted mud horse and earlier in the season was good enough to beat Duke of Kendal in such going. In the mud yesterday he was figured to have a royal chance. He was coupled with Illyria, and the pair opened at even money, But in spite of an avalanche of backing the odds receded. When it came to racing Himself, carrying 97 pounds, could not get up a respectable gallep and was beaten before the race had been under way for half a mile. There was an uproar from those who had played the Daly pair and many disgrunteld bettors crowded around he stewards' stand, clamoring for redress.

The stewards sent for D. Carter, who trains the Daly horses, and questioned him closely What his excuses were could not be learned but it was said afterward that the turf of ficials were decidedly hot under the collar over what they believed to be an inexcusably bad looking race. Daly's Salt and Pepper in the last race was tremendously backed. the odds dropping from 3 to 1 to 9 to 5, yet the filly could not get out of her own way. Many horsemen have often remarked that the Daly horses have the good fortune to win usually at long odds, while defeat awaits them when hot public choices, but they ascribe that to so-called racing luck. Daly will have to frame up a pretty good argument, it is said, to smooth the ruffled feelings of the stewards, but the Sage of Hartford is plausible person and can talk like a Philadelphia lawyer when he wants to do so.

John A. Drake's agents bet $20,000 on Britisher yesterday. It was a lucky win, all things considered. The Drake colt had a big pull at the weights from Glorifier, who was poorly ridden by the peerless Hildebrand. Glorifies has been on the sick list for some time and was started in this race to get him ready for a stake engagement later on. The Hastings colt is not a good work horse, so that racing is the best means of getting him fit. Those who saw him defeated yesterday were positive that he is still one of the best two-year-olds of the year. There are few colts that can give fifteen pounds to Britisher, who, by the way, ran a far better race than when Austin Allen beat him one day in similar going when he was a prohibitive favorite.

The steeplechase yesterday, on its general result, was a farcical affair and demonstrated clearly the fallacy of betting on such uncertain propositions. Incidentally, it afforded the spectators a chance to see another fall in which a jockey narrowly escaped being killed. Jimmy Mara, who has had his collarbone broken twice this year, had the mount on J. W. Colt's Malden. This horse and Good and Plenty ran at breakneck pace through the last mile. They approached the final jump at such a terrific gait that many onlookers wanted to bet that there would be a spill. At this particular obstacle poor Green met his fate, and when Malden turned a somersault there were cries of "Mara's killed!" Mara fell on his head. His arms were tangled up in the reins and Malden, scrambling to his feet, started to drag the scrambling to his est, stated to his knees. Fortunately Mara succeeded in getting his hands free, but he was still in peril, as Mystic Shriner was bearing down on the jump, Mara being directly in his path. With the aid of a policeman Mara got out of harm's way in the nick of time. He was severely shaken

Saffel got a hard fall from Daylesford on the backstretch He landed on his back, but escaped unhurt. A dozen layers in the bet-ting ring refused to make book in this race, while hundreds of players stayed off. If the question could be decided by a vote of the racegoers, steeplechasing would have few advocates. It is said that the Aqueduct track will build a steeplechase course to be ready for the fall meeting. In view of the unpopularity of the "sport" it might be well for the Queens County Jockey Club to go

E. R. Bradley, owner of Bad News, started a filly named Rose Mary Kane, by Mirthful—Ida III., in the last race. It kind of a good thing and accordingly the price fell from 20 to 1 to tens. The filly was distressingly beaten, while Meadow Horn, bred by Col. Pepper, enabled numerous persons to take solid chunks of money from the books. Last Friday Meadow Horn was backed from 100 to 1 down to 30 in the same race that Ismailian was played down from 100 to fives. Ismailian ran third on that occasion, while Meadow Horn, who was interfered while Meadow Horn, who was interfered with on the turn, came in far back. Yesterday Ismailian opened at 3 to 1, but went back to fours and finished half a length outside of the money. Meadow Horn opened at 20 to 1 and was played around the ring until her price was generally quoted at 15 to 1 She won with ridiculous ease.

Graceful, who won the Seagull Stakes, will be sold on Saturday. The previous winners of this race were Peep o' Day, Sunny Slope, Komuresaki, Cambrian, McMeekin and Astarita. It was not run in 1901 or 1902. E. R. Thomas shipped a carload of his horses to Saratoga yesterday, including the great Hermis, who is a sure starter in the $12,000 handicap on the opening day. Jack Joyner said yesterday that he had not yet made up his mind whether Waterboy would go to the post for this race. The Watercress horse is receiving a special preparation for the Great Republic Stakes, to be run later on at

About the saddest looking person at the track when Graceful came home on the bit was George Wheelook. The last time Graceful ran Wheelook bet a bunch on her. Turquoise Blue, who broke down at Brighton on Saturday, was not destroyed. She will be sent to the stud.

Rockaway Hunting Club Wins Pole Game After a Tie.

CEDARHURST, L. I., July 25 .- The game of polo in which the score was tied last Friday was decided this afternoon on the grounds of the Rockaway Hunting Club. The Rockaway Hunting Club four defeated the Westchester Country Club quartet and shut them out in the final period of fifteen minutes. Foxhall P. Keene made the last two goals of the match. Rene La Montagne earned the first goal of the final period in three minutes. Daniel Chauncey, Jr., followed with a goal and then in four and three minutes respectively Keene made his two goals. The final score stood: Rockaway Hunting Club, 6% goals; Country Club ef Westchester, 2% goals. of the Rockaway Hunting Club. The Rock-

AUTOS OFF ON LONG JAUNT.

New York Contingent of Fifteen Starts for St. Louis—Six Go From Boston.

THE SUN. TUESDAY, JULY 26: 1904.

Fifteen automobiles, each carrying one or more passengers, left the Central Park Plaza, at Fifty-eighth street and Fifth avenue, yes terday morning on the long run to St. Louis under the auspices of the American Auto-mobile Association. About as many more motor vehicles started off with the tourists to act as escort for varying distances along the Hudson. Five of those entered to star from New York, including the only woman entered for the trip, will start to-day and, taking a shorter route, join the others in Buffalo next Saturday. Some of these five preferred the shorter route and others were disappointed in not getting their cars ready o start yesterday. Nearly all the cars entered for the long tour of 1,353 miles were touring cars and so were most of those on hand to act as escorts. The cars of the tourists and the men in them bore evidence of being equipped for a long journey, and the whole assemblage of about thirty cars was a picturesque one which attracted a crowd even at 9 o'clock in the norning, which is early in that neighborhood. Extra tires were to be seen on almost ever; car and there were rubber covers for the tonneaus and for the engine, extra batteries and various contrivances designed to cover exigencies. The men themselves mostly wore boots or leggins and rubber coats when they first arrived, but before the start was made at 9:40 o'clock the baskets at the sides or the grips in the tonneaus yielded up dusters that were substituted for the rubber gar ments. All the cars bore canvas squares announcing the serial numbers of their en tries and the fact that they were bound from New York to St. Louis on the A. A. A. tour.

The big steam touring car of Augustus Post, the banker automobiling enthusiast. who is chairman of the tours' committee of the A. A. A. and the general of the run, was first away, and after it the others rolled in quick succession, vanishing up Fifth avenue so rapidly that in a few minutes there was so rapidly that in a few minutes there was none in sight, and only the remnants of the crowd hing around the curbstone. It was an unpretentious start to the biggest tour ever undertaken by so many automobiles.

Just before he left, Mr. Post received a telegram from Boston stating that the New England division of the tour had left there at 7 o'clock and would join the New Yorkers at Albany. With contingents from Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Buffalo, Cleveland, and Chicago, who are to fall in line, there were sixty-one enisted for the tour, and a despatch from Chicago received by the committee while at the post announced that five more entries had been made there. It is expected that there vill also be quite a few in line who did not care to make formal entry.

The two cars in which chief interest centred arrived just as the others were disappearing up Fifth avenue. These were the new Peerless racer of 70 horse power, bufft for Harlan V. Whipple, president of the American Automobile Association, and the 20 horse power, Larracq of F. A. La Boche. The former must nake the trip to St. Louis in order to be accepted by Mr. Whipple. Mr. La Roche wil, not abide by the two weeks' schedule of the tourists. He started to make the trip through to St. Louis in three days without having his engine stop. He started at 9:4 o'clock, the car carrying his alternate as a driver. Alexander Le Blanc, and an official observer, Norris Mason, besides Lee Strauss as passenger and himself. Messrs. Le Blanc and La Roche will relieve each other at driving, one resting by travelling on a train and picking up the other about every twelve hours. Mr. Mason, the observer, will be similarly relieved by H. H. Everett, all of this city.

The route for the New Yorkers is up the Hudeon with the first night's stop at Pauch. none in sight, and only the remnants of the hours. Mr. Mason, the observer, will be similarly relieved by H. H. Everett, all of this city.

The route for the New Yorkers is up the Hudson, with the first night's stop at Poughkeepsie, then by way of Albany, Utica, Syracuse and Rochester to Buffalo, where Sunday will be spent, thence by way of Cleveland, Chicago and Springfield, Ill. to St. Louis. The second Sunday, Aug. 7, will be spent at Chicago. Those who start to-day will take the shorter cut through the mountains, by way of Kingston, Binghamton and Bath to Buffalo.

Those who actually started yesterday morning were:

The tour is due at St. Louis on Aug. 10.

Boston, July 25.—The Boston contingent of the American Automobile Association's St. Louis run left the clubhouse of the Massachusetts Automobile Club to-day. A half dozen machines started on the long ride of nearly 1,400 miles to the exposition city. At the head of the procession was H. W. Whipple, president of the A. A. A. and Mrs. Whipple, president of the A. A. A. and Mrs. Whipple, in their Mercedes car. Elliott C. Lee, president of the Massachusetts Automobile Club, was in his White steamer. Charles J. Bidden and Mrs. Glidden were in their big Napier car, with which they have already toured more than 16,000 miles in Europe, Fourth was H. F. Lesh in a Pope Toledo touring car. A few minutes later Jeorge H. Lowe, in a White steamer, and Percy P. Pierce, in the Pierce car that climbed Mount Washington, started on the route. It is expected that others will overtake the early starters before the registration book is closed tonight at 10 o'clock at Springfield. Besides starting on the St. Louis trip, Mr. and Mrs. Glidden made their start this morning on a tour around the world.

The first stop of the St. Louis tourists will be in Worcester. They will be met at Shrewsbury by a delegation from the club in that city will meet the Boston party. Automobilists from Worcester, Spri

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. REPTON, England, July 25.—The last game of the tour of the Haverford College cricket team began here to-day in threatening weather. Rain came down in the afternoon when C. C. Morris and W. P. Bonbright were well set for Morris and W. P. Bonbright were well set for the second wicket, and necessitated a postponement of hostilities until to-morrow.

The Reptonians batted first, and quickly lost two wickets for 5 runs. J. W. Crawford and E. A. Cresswell then got together, however, and made a splendid stand. The former was the first to go for a capital innings of 41, while Cresswell continued to do good work until he had 65 to his credit. The next two men fell easy victims, but another stand took place when C. S. Meyer and J. Thwaltes got together and put on 21 and 34, respectively. After they were separated, the innings was quickly brought to a conclusion for a total of 190. Haverford will resume batting when the game is continued in the morning. The score: Repton, 190; Haverford, 61 for 1 wicket.

She won the first race sailed in June, and successfully defended the cup last Saturday against the Red Wing, whose owner, J. B. O'Donohue had challenged, and six other boats. The race was sailed on Gravesend Bay in a light north wind. The Bobtail won, beating the Vivian 11., owned by S. E. Vernon, by 3 minutes 14 seconds. The other yachts in the race and the order in which they finished, were: Lizna, Mary, Wraith, Era, Trouble and Red Wing.

The regatta committee will set the date for the next contest, and if that should be won by the Bobtail, the cup will become the property of Mr. Luckenback. has challenged for a race for the challenge

Al Orth, late Senator, made his first bow in a New York American uniform yesterday, and a highly successful salaam it was. Orth pitched superbly against the stout Chicagos. It was a model of a game in the pitching department and also in fielding, the New Yorks scoring the only run of the game in the ninth inning.

Fine control and icy coolness both pitchers had in plenty. Orth fooled the Chicago batters badly with his curved ball and he whipped straight ones through just near enough to the upper and lower strata of safety to miss being balls. Each side made four hits. The Chicago clouts were distributed over four innings; New York's were bunched in pairs, and the second bunching won the game in the ninth inning.
In seven out of the nine innings the New Yorks did not get a man on base. The Chicagos had men on base in five innings, and Orth had more trying situations to deal with than Owens. He overcame them in masterly style. The game was snappy for a pitchers duel, and in the prevalent clean cut fielding the Chicagos appeared to slightly better ad-vantage. Davis and Donohue were as brilliant vantage. Davis and Donohue were as brilliant as busy.

Chicago launched a base runner in the first. Callahan singling with two out. Inen Fultz, who played ably in centre, squelched Donohue. With one out in the third, Owen splasned to right for a base, Jones hit viciously to Orth, and a splendid play at both ends followed—Orth and Williams being the ends—by which Owen was forced. Jones tried to steal, but Kleinow turned him back a yard. Davis whanged a triple to right centre in the fourth, but there were two out at the time, and Dougherty squeezed Donohue's lift.

the fourth, but there were two out at the time, and Dougherty squeezed Donohue's lift.

The first New Yorker to visit a base was in the fourth. There were two out when Elberfeld singled over second base. Dundon, who covers a world of ground to his right, stopped the ball, but could not get in position for a good throw. Anderson singled to right, but Williams hit faintly to Owen and the inning was over. For Chicago in the sixth Green doubled. There were two out and Conroy corraled Callahan's foul.

The seventh inning was squally for New. York. Davis received the only base on balls of the game. He headed for second as Donohue grounded to Elberfeld. Davis sid into second ahead of Elberfeld and then the latter threw wide to first trying to head off Donohue. Nobody was out and Dundon's well. Placed sacrifice advanced the base runners. That was as dark as the outlook became. Anderson threw Davis out at the plate on Tannehill's grounder and Sullivan flied to Dougherty. Orth was out in the ninth when Dougherty orth was out in the ninth when Dougherty whumped himself and reached third. The rain came down briskly at this stage and Jones of Chicago had the stupendous nerve to run in from centre field and ask that the game be called. Nothing short of a cloudburst would have stopped the game with the situation as it was, a man on third in the ninth inning and a run of such importance as to decide the game. Sheridan met Jones half way and chased him back to the field.

Keeler's single brought Dougherty in. Keeler's single brought Dougherty in Keeler chopped a little infield fly, which struck in front of Dundon, who tried for it, but could not reach. The ball slipped by him and Dougherty trod the rubber. The score:

RODENBACH TO TURN "PRO." Amateur Heavyweight Champion May Box McCoy at San Francisco.

It was said yesterday that Billy Roden bach, the national amateur heavyweight champion intends to turn professional and take on Kid McCoy as a starter. It is reported that Rodenbach and McCoy are to have it out at San Francisco before the Hayes have it out at San Francisco before the Hayes Valley A. C., some time next winter. Rodenbach has been a prominent amateur for some time, and there is much speculation as to how he will fare as a professional. His last bout was with Sam Berger, the Pacific Coast heavyweight champion, who many think will fill Jim Jeffries's shoes some day. Rodenbach outpointed Berger without much trouble and won easily. This fight made for him a lot of friends in California, and whenever he fights a large crowd will turn out to see him battle.

Rodenbach is to compete in the Olympic amateur boxing championships at St. Louis. His friends expect him to be successful. In going against McCoy first, there are many who think that Rodenbach is making a big mistake. He has never gone over six rounds in his career and his admirers think that it would be more advisable for him to meet some other professional, of less importance than the kid, just to get his hand in. There are plenty of such men in Philadelphia, Jack Williams for instance. If Rodenbach does this he can get the necessary experience and make some money in the bargain.

Brooklyns Close Disastrous Trip With Two Defeats in One Day. The Brooklyns wound up their "conquest" of the West yesterday with two defeats in tennis event of the season began this afternoon on the court of the Longwood Cricket Club, when play in the Longwood singles commenced. The first rounds of the Eastern DEAGUE.

TANDING OF THE CLUBS.

Buffalo 45 26 .634 Montreal 33 35 485 Baltimore 41 31 .568 Toronto 38 41 446 Baltimore 41 31 .568 Toronto 38 41 446 Newark 39 32 .549 Rochester 24 8 .314 Montreal 39 32 .549 Rochester 39 32 .549 Roch straight sets. Holcombe Ward played a fine, steady game and downed F. J. Sulloway with ease. George Beal put up a fight against W. J. Clothier, but he soon tised, the Philadelphia player's net game being excellent. The match between E. W. Leonard and H. F. Allen attracted much interest. Leonard played a strong game, but had to show his best tennis to get away with the first two sets. When within one point of losing the match, Allen was taken with cramps and defaulted the point. The match between A. S. Pier and R. E. Seaver was the best of the afternoon, an extra set being necessary to decide a winner.

Longwood Singles—First round—Beals C. Wright defeated M. A. Bridgham, 6—1, 6—1; G. S. Keyes defeated G. W. Morrill, 6—2, 6—1, 6—0; B. S. Prentice defeated Claxton Moulton, 6—2, 6—2, 6—3; Richard Hooker defeated W. B. Rotch, by default; Holcombe Ward defeated F. J. Sulloway, 6—3, 6—2, 6—2, N. W. Cabot defeated T. J. Osbourn, 8—0, 6—0, 6—0, A. E. Bell defeated J. D. E. Jones, by default; G. H. Miller defeated A. S. Pier. Second round—R. C. Seaver defeated A. S. Pier.

Third round—A. L. Hoskins defeated L. F. San born, 6—0, 6—0, 6—0. Newport Lawn Tennis Season Begins To-da) NEWPORT, R. I., July 25 .- The lawn tennis courts of the Newport Casino will be the scene to-morrow morning of the first tournasoene to-norrow morning of the first tournament of the season, the play to be for two silver cups offered by Mrs. John Jacob Astor. Although not a national tournament, it will be conducted on the same lines and the contestants will be fair members of the cottage colony of Newport. The entry list has been good and the classes have been arranged by Tom Pettit, the professional in charge of the tennis department at the Casino, and there is every reason to believe that there will be some good playing, as many of the women entered put up a fine game. The favorites in the tournament are Mrs. Barger-Wallach and Miss Anna Sands, but they may lose on account of the handicap that they will be obliged to give, as both are in the first class of players. The drawings are as follows:

Preliminary round—Mrs. Barger-Wallach and Miss Anna Sands vs. Miss Dorothea Potter and Miss Edna Barger: Miss Mary Sands and Miss Ania Sands vs. Miss Cyntha Roehe and Miss S. C. Pell Miss Robinson and Miss M. Moran vs. Mrs. R. L. Livingston and partner.

First round—Miss Maude Wetmore and Miss

The third match in the preliminary round has been defaulted of Mrs. Livingston and partner, they being unable to play. Race for the Harmsworth Cup

The race for the Harmsworth cup for motor The race for the Harmsworth cup for motor boats will take place on the Solent next Saturday. The American boat Challenger, owned by A. D. P. Smith, will start, and her owner as well as her designer, Clinton H. Crane, have great hopes of her bringing the trophy to these waters. The Challenger has made 20.3 miles an hour in a trial. She will have to meet the crack boats of England, France and dermany, and the most dangerous is the defending boat Napier Minor, owned by S. F. Edge. This boat recently won the Emperor's cup at Kiel. She made 25 miles in thour 1 minute 20 seconds. The boats in the Harmsworth cup race must not exceed the feet in length, but there is no limit to power.
